

The ANZTLA *E*Journal

Australian and New Zealand Theological Library Association  No. 11 (2013)

Welcome to the eleventh issue of The ANZTLA EJournal - the official serial publication of the Australian and New Zealand Theological Library Association. The ANZTLA EJournal is indexed in the Australasian Religion Index (ARI).

Of Making Many Books There is No End was the theme of the conference from which these papers emerged. Like their ancient counterparts, the contributors to this issue are adding to the accumulated wisdom of the Judeo-Christian tradition that extends deep into our shared past, as well as addressing the emerging challenges of our current time and place.

Eve James

Editor

Contents

2	Conference Summary	53	Ebooks@Flinders
8	Of Making Many Books There Is No End ... and Much Cataloguing Wearies the Body	65	Free Theological/Biblical Resources on the Web
21	Let My People Know!: Towards a Revolution in the Teaching of the Hebrew Bible	68	From Synopsis to the Shelf
24	Interfaith Dialogue and Theological Schools	74	From T.T. Reed's Colonial Clergymen to Trove
27	Interfaith Dialogue and Löhe Memorial Library	89	Jeanette Little Scholarship Scheme Recipient Report
30	Shifting the Library Paradigm: The Role of Cultural Intelligence on Tomorrow	91	Of Volunteers There Is No End
41	Responding to Multicultural Challenges: Camden Theological Library	109	Librarians Never Retire!
44	Cultural Intelligence: A New Zealand Perspective	128	The Human Factor: Volunteers in Libraries
47	Beginning Ebooks: Vose Seminary's Experience So Far	135	Especially Special: Why Theological Libraries and Librarians Are So Special
		142	And Much Information Wearies the Body
		158	Pin Your Library
		165	Contributors