On January 19, 2010, Ms. Libbie Crawford, marketing manager for Dewey products at OCLC, assured the compiler that the mapping of new Library of Congress Subject Headings to suggested DDC numbers will resume, although at a date yet to be determined.
The entries in this list were selected from the Library of Congress, Cataloging Policy and Support Office’s Library of Congress Classification Weekly List, 42(2009:October 22) to 3(2010:January 20).

“Weekly lists of additions and changes to the Library of Congress Classification (LCC) are posted on the Cataloging Policy and Support Office Web site [at http://www.loc.gov/aba/cataloging/classification/weeklylists/] as they are approved”-- Library of Congress Classification (LCC) Weekly List.

The class letter identifies the schedule to which changes and additions are made. New captions are accompanied by a full hierarchy as necessary; changes are indicated by a cancelled line and the addition of a new line. Changes are also highlighted in gray. Numbers that appear in square brackets are not printed in the printed editions of the classification schedules. They are shown on this list only to indicate the location of the corresponding caption or reference within the classification.

This list also includes selected changes and additions outside the B-BX classes relating to religious topics or library science.

The entries in this list were selected from the Library of Congress, Cataloging Policy and Support Office’s Library of Congress Classification Weekly List, 31(2009:August 5) to 41(2009:October 14).

“Weekly lists of additions and changes to the Library of Congress Classification (LCC) are posted on the Cataloging Policy and Support Office Web site [at http://www.loc.gov/aba/cataloging/classification/weeklylists/] as they are approved”—Library of Congress Classification (LC) Weekly List.

The class letter identifies the schedule to which changes and additions are made. New captions are accompanied by a full hierarchy as necessary; changes are indicated by a cancelled line and the addition of a new line. Changes are also highlighted in gray. Numbers that appear in square brackets are not printed in the printed editions of the classification schedules. They are shown on this list only to indicate the location of the corresponding caption or reference within the classification.

This list also includes selected changes and additions outside the B-BX classes relating to religious topics or library science.
