SERVE THE ATLA TECHNICAL SERVICES INTEREST GROUP

Are you interested in being on the steering committee of Atla's Technical Services Interest Group (TSIG)? Qualifications are minimal, basically having an interest in shaping technical services activities at Atla Annual Conference—and even that is not difficult, since technical services people are usually self-starters. Elections will be held in June at the Atla Annual in Denver. You may nominate yourself or someone else. Please send nominations to richard.lammert@ctsfw.edu.

Please visit the TSIG website for more information about the TSIG, the current leadership, plan of the organization, opportunities for involvement, and activities.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF AND SECTION EDITOR POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The Theology Cataloging Bulletin (TCB), seeks a new editor-in-chief as well as a new section editor for appointment to three-year terms commencing this June.

The editor-in-chief is primarily responsible for overseeing the production of the quarterly issues and collaborating with the section editors to ensure collation of content. The section editor has primary responsibility for reviewing and reporting on the changes to the Library of Congress subject heading and classification numbers.

To view the full position description for the editor-in-chief as well as for instructions to apply, please visit the Atla Job Board. To view the full position description for the section editor and instructions to apply, please visit the Atla Job Board.

All current individual and retired members of Atla with a background and interest in cataloging are encouraged to apply. Review of applications will begin April 1, 2020, and appointments will be made by June 1, 2020.

Richard Lammert is Technical Services Librarian at Concordia Theological Seminary and also serves as chair of the TSIG.
