SECTION ONE: NEW AND CHANGED SUBJECT HEADINGS
COMPILED BY JOANNA HAUSE

The subject headings in this list were selected from the Library of Congress Subject Headings Weekly Lists, available on the Library of Congress web site at:

<http://lcweb.loc.gov/catdir/cpso/cpso.html#subjects>.

This list consists of headings selected from the Library's list numbers 8-9 of 2012.

The following conventions are used, as in previous lists:

Headings are in a single alphabetical sequence, preceded by MARC tags. The record number (Library of Congress control number) follows the heading. The absence of the instruction [May Subd Geog] means that the heading is not to be further divided by place.

The following print constants appear:

UF = Used For

BT = Broader Term

RT = Related Term

SA = See Also

* Asterisks mark lines (or paragraphs) that are CHANGES.

Selected changes to free-floating subdivisions are at the end of the list.

SECTION TWO, PART 2: LC CLASSIFICATION
ADDITIONS AND CHANGES, B-BX
COMPILED BY ERIC FRIEDE

The entries in this list were selected from the Library of Congress, Policy and Standards Division's Library of Congress Classification List, 07(2012:July 16) to 09(2012:September 17).

The lists of additions and changes to the Library of Congress Classification are posted on the LC Cataloging and Acquisitions Web site as they are approved monthly.

The lists are at: <http://www.loc.gov/aba/cataloging/classification/weeklylists/>

The class letter identifies the schedule to which changes and additions are made. New captions are accompanied by a full hierarchy as necessary; changes are indicated by a cancelled line and the addition of a new line. Changes are also highlighted in gray. Numbers that appear in square brackets are not printed in the printed editions of the classification schedules. They are shown on this list only to indicate the location of the corresponding caption or reference within the classification.

This list also includes selected changes and additions outside the B-BX classes relating to religious topics or library science.

SECTION THREE: NEWS AND VIEWS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE ATLA TECHNICAL SERVICES SECTION
EDITED BY TAMMY JOHNSON

ATLA NACO AND CONSER NEWS

Preparing for RDA

How are you preparing for RDA? Have you checked out the great resources on the Library of Congress website: Cataloger's Learning Workshop (CLW). You can find it at: <http://www.loc.gov/catworkshop/>. There you will find all kinds of free training material to help you and your colleagues prepare for the new rules and the new fields RDA will bring.

While there is no Day One set for bibliographic records, LC plans to train all its catalogers by March 31, 2013. After that date, LC will issue all cataloging following RDA rules. They will also stop supporting all AACR2 rules and practices. So, an increasing amount of cataloging will follow RDA rules, forcing everyone to switch, or to spend time altering cataloging to fit the old rules. Over time, I suspect it will be much more cost effective for catalogers to switch to RDA.

NACO catalogers are required to learn RDA and to switch all their creation and editing of authority records to follow RDA as of March 31, 2013. That is considered Day One for RDA authority work. To prepare for that day, all NACO catalogers are required to take ten to fourteen hours of online course work followed by two one-hour webinars. The online course work is free and is not restricted to NACO catalogers. Anyone interested in the changes RDA will bring to authority records is welcome to watch the videos, demos and take the quizzes. The online course can be found at: http://www.loc.gov/catworkshop/courses/rda_naco/course%20table.html.

CONSER catalogers are also preparing to switch serials cataloging to RDA rules. The CONSER staff at LC is preparing online course work to be available in the spring of 2013. Once that training is available, I would expect a Day One for CONSER serial records to be set.

Anyone interested in joining the NACO and CONSER Funnel groups should contact me at jknop@atla.com

LC GENRE/FORM TERMS FOR RELIGIOUS MATERIAL PROJECT

The third draft of terms was handed over to Janis Young of LC's Policy and Standards Division for formal evaluation in August 2012. She will forward the draft to the other PSD specialists, LC reference librarians and catalogers who work with religious materials, and to anyone else who expresses an interest. Depending upon the comments and suggestions she collects, project participants may be required to do additional work on some specific terms. When both the project participants and LC staff are comfortable with the terms, LC will make the authority records and put them on a tentative list which will be public.
