PRESENT

- Donna Greenhut, Western Seminary Sacramento
- Elizabeth Miller, Moravian Theological Seminary
- Gregory Morrison, Wheaton College
- Marta Samokishyn, Saint Paul University

Since some of us had never met, we spent most of the time introducing ourselves and describing the work we do at our institutions. Marta asked for input on a project she started to build an international index/database of lesser known “Eastern Christian” journals. Members recommended that she start a conversation with Atla staff and to also consult with John Thompson, who normally chairs the Orthodox Denominational Group but was absent this year.
